Product description

The Cruzado picnic set (wood) is a picnic set based on the Cruzado bench series. The advantages of the Cruzado benches are therefore reflected in this wooden picnic set. The height of the seat and the tabletop of this picnic set is ergonomically designed. This means that it is comfortable and healthy to sit at this set. Thanks to the modest design, the set completely blends into the environment. The picnic set is ideally suited to locations where the set does not need to be dominantly visible.

Features

- Ergonomic design
- Inviting appearance
- Available in any RAL and AKZO color

Materials

The bench is made of hardwood and hot-dip galvanised and powder-coated steel. This ensures that the steel is protected against various weather influences and so can last for years in the outdoor space. The steel can be coated in any RAL or AKZO colour.
